

MICHIGAN SWING DANCE ASSOCIATION

LEARN TO DANCE WITH TWO PARTNERS AT THE NEXT MSDA DANCE**

- This week, an email came around with a link to a dance routine by American Bop Association President Gary Chaney on YouTube.com. It is a delightful tandem Imperial Swing routine that Gary, his wife Charlotte and partner Debbie Wheelis have been doing for years. Imperial Swing has been described as East Coast Swing danced in a slot and infused with a touch of West Coast Swing styling.
- Take a look at it and then come to the next MSDA and learn how to do a tandem West Coast Swing. It is too much fun!!! Ladies, this is for us too!

Dance Party 4PM - 8PM
Our parties are at RHYTHM 'N' SHOES BALLROOM DANCE STUDIO in Bloomfield Hills, MI.

Global Dance TV : <http://www.globaldance.tv/>

They are a high-end internet television company founded by dancers and dedicated to the dance community of the world. Their plan is to broadcast on three separate channels in their network. Channel One, free for all viewers, is designed for beginners & young people with daily teen dance shows highlighting Shag, West Coast Swing, Lindy, Hand Dancing and Salsa. Hosted by popular young dancers well known throughout the dance community. Channel one will also present beginning workshop instruction by world renown dance instructors, talk shows and more. Channel Two is for the more advanced dancer with workshops, talk shows, interviews with icons, championship dance programming, DJ talk, and much much more designed to fulfill that every day need for your dance enjoyment. Channel Three will be dedicated to Special events, Championship competitions around the world and special dance workshops and training. PHIL'S WEST COAST SWING INTENSIVE WAS..... INTENSE!

A few Saturdays ago, Phil Dorroll taught a 3 hour West Coast Swing Intensive at Loretta's Pointe in Keego Harbor. It was inspired by Phil's participation in an Intensive by Mario Robau, the dance teacher's teacher. The class at Loretta's was full, in spite of the fact that it was the first gorgeous day of the year. The lessons were concentrated, entertaining, immediately useful and were supplemented by many pages of handouts explaining concepts in detail.

Phil's passion for music and dancing makes his classes fascinating. Many people may not know that he has a history based in music. He used to play in a band, write music and sing. (Occasionally he can be persuaded to play one of his songs that is a great WCS.)

For this reason, it makes it ideal for him to explain musicality and teach dancing, because he emphasizes that the real core of it is to interpret the music through the movement of your body through time and space. Lead and follow dancing isn't about patterns. It's about Pulsing and Dancing the 2, Scrolling and Bending, Texture, Shading and Depth and more. That's what he introduces in his classes.

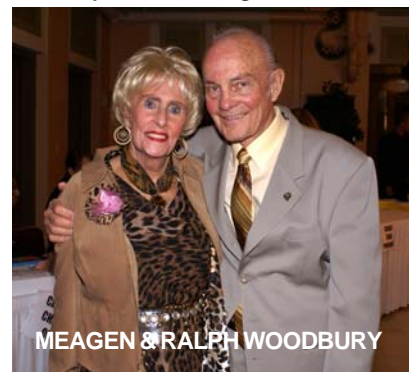

Other sports have similar challenges. Skiing, tennis, basketball...they all require that the body be moved in a specific set of repeated, practiced motions in order to achieve the goal. But dancing requires an additional skill set, that of hearing, understanding and being able to respond appropriately and creatively to the music, whether it has been played for the last 10 years or is totally new. That takes dancing to the level that we recognize when we watch the great West Coast Swing dancers.

Phil has arranged for Mario Robau to offer his intensive at the Tampa Bay Classic this year. What an opportunity!

MEAGAN WOODBURY

Last Friday, a large group of dancers attended the Memorial Service for Meagan Woodbury. It was wonderful to hear all the stories about this larger than life character who was the most colorful bird in our dance world. At the luncheon, a friend of the family, who was a teenager when she met Meagan, described life at the Woodbury's as wild and wonderful. She said the kids wanted to hang out there because it was always a blast. "After all, how many moms come out dancing in GoGo boots and a mini-skirt?" Not only was Meagan unabashedly in love with life, she was also a warm and thoughtful friend. It was impossible for her to pass up anyone without a hug and an "I love you, honey." She kept track of who was dating who, how things were going and always offered a word of encouragement.

Meagan was very supportive of our dance community and showed up, even when she may not have been feeling her best. Her vibrant presence will be sorely missed. We love you too, Meagan.

NEW COUNTRY BAR OPENS IN AUBURN HILLS

<http://www.freep.com/article/20090430/FEATURES01/904300586>
Country music star Toby Keith will open a 650-seat restaurant and entertainment center at Great Lakes Crossing in Auburn Hills late this year, the mall announced Wednesday. The restaurant, named I Love This Bar & Grill, will be his sixth nationally and the first in Michigan. The new spot, visible from I-75, will feature live country music and dancing and an occasional surprise performance by Keith himself. Other attractions include an 85-seat guitar-shaped bar, retail shop, mechanical bull and a patio with outside seating. Construction is set to begin soon on the 22,000-square-foot location near Bass Pro Shops.
