

MICHIGAN SWING DANCE ASSOCIATION

All You Ever Need to know about

Relationships

Can be learned in a West Coast Swing Class:

By Skippy Blair © 3/95 Update 1/96 and 4/03

1. Lead her GENTLY and she'll follow you anywhere. For every ACTION there is an equal and opposite REACTION.
2. Never CRITICIZE a Partner. The only person you can FIX is YOU. (The only person, responsible for making an ADJUSTMENT, is the one who knows an adjustment needs to be made.)
3. A Lead is an INDICATION of direction (a suggestion-never a DEMAND).
4. A DANCE PARTNERSHIP is 50/50. BOTH partners are equally responsible for the outcome of the partnership.
5. If either one of the partnership insists on deciding who is right and who is wrong, they BOTH lose.
6. The FIRST Rule in learning something new is - Don't Hurt Anybody.
7. Be sensitive to your Partner. Never Blame or ridicule. YOU alone can make the difference. (don't try to adjust the Partner - adjust YOU).
8. Always concentrate on WHAT is right rather than WHO is right.
9. TEAMWORK gets the most points. (In LIFE as well as the Dance!) YOU are frequently judged by how good you make your partner look.
10. A good Partnership requires patience, understanding, and an awareness of the needs of the other partner. Stay focused.
11. The way to help a partner improve, is to do YOUR part so well that you know that you are not part of the PROBLEM.
12. Life is a JOY when we're both in step to the same BEAT.
13. Praise works wonders. Applaud little accomplishments and bigger accomplishments will follow.

DANCE LESSON

At the July dance, Bill Scheff taught a beginning Hustle lesson. Bill is known for teaching a hustle basic that permits control and style even during the fastest hustles. And...NO ONE was bobbing up and down by the end of the lesson! Bravo, Bill!

Albert Tailleir will be back to share some hot West Coast Swing moves with us. He will focus on posture and connection. Intermediate level.

14. We frequently judge others, not by who they are, but by who WE are when we are with them. Make your partner feel wonderful.
15. Every dance is a "Three minute relationship." If someone can't complete one "3 minute" dance without criticizing a partner, it is highly probable that when the music stops - the criticism won't !
16. A successful "Partnership" maintains the separate uniqueness of each individual, without losing the connection of the partnership.

BIRTHDAYS...AN ISSUE FOR SOME MEMBERS. It has been brought to my attention that some people HATE being called out on the floor for the birthday dance and may even stay home that day to avoid it. Yet I know that others love it. So, please let me know if you don't want your birthday published in the newsletter and/or if you don't want to come out on the floor. I'll be happy to respect your wishes. SN

MUSIC?

Each month there will be a sheet at the front desk that invites you to list the songs you would like to hear. We will make every effort to play those songs, if not at this dance, then the next one. Feel free to bring in CD's and ask either me or Bill to play songs that you like. As always, our format is mainly swing and hustle with a sprinkling of country, latin, and ballroom. If you would like to try out your DJ skills, just ask.

S.N.

Do You Remember When.....

...you were a new dancer? Do you remember when you went to your first dance and just stood around because you didn't know anyone? And maybe went home without dancing at all? Do you remember when you first got up the nerve to ask that really "good" dancer to dance with you? Do you remember how nervous yet excited you were? Do you remember how that dancer treated you and how it made you feel?

I'm not interested in sermonizing but, Houston....we have a problem. New people show up at every single MSDA dance. But, because they are often totally ignored or, worse yet, criticized for how they dance, many never come back. I hear this all the time.

I know it's really great to see your friends and get in some challenging and exciting dancing with the better dancers, but it's important to encourage new dancers too. That's why I put Skippy's article on page one. She thoroughly understands RELATIONSHIPS and give and take.

In addition, you might ask yourself, "When did it stop being fun to help a new dancer look good and feel good?" It's a tribute to your skill to do so, by the way. And if it means "sacrificing" a dance or two in four hours, do it! How do you think the Pro's feel when you go and ask them to dance at a national event? Do they turn you down or tell you to go take more lessons first? No! Do you think they dance with you because you are such a hot dancer? No! They dance with you to encourage you! To further dance in all its forms and at all levels. That's what improves the dance community and creates better dancers. So, when you stick to your little cliques, you cut off your nose to spite your face. Instead, you could be nurturing some of the best future dancers to come on the floor, if only you'd give them the time of day. (I even heard remarks about "snobby Michigan dancers" at the Michigan Classic from out of towners.)

So..it's up to you veteran dancers to keep this community alive and growing. I can only bring them in the door. It's up to you to keep them there. And I hope with all my heart that you decide to embrace these newcomers, for all our sakes. Thanks for understanding. SN
